

Pronouns and Narrative Perspective Quiz

Name: _____

Determine what case and point of view the bolded pronouns are; shade in the best answer.

1. During the hot summer months, I like to eat ice-cream.

- a. first-person subjective c. third-person objective
 b. third-person subjective d. first-person objective

2. Alice is going to go to the party with them.

- a. first-person subjective c. third-person objective
 b. third-person subjective d. first-person objective

3. You need to put your name on the top of this test.

- a. second-person subjective c. third-person objective
 b. third-person subjective d. second-person objective

4. She always does her homework and she never plays around in class.

- a. second-person subjective c. third-person objective
 b. third-person subjective d. second-person objective

5. Keisha, did you remember to bring it?

- a. second-person subjective c. third-person objective
 b. third-person subjective d. second-person objective

6. We just came back from the beach; we had such an awesome time.

- a. second-person subjective c. third-person subjective
 b. first-person subjective d. second-person objective

7. Darrel flopped on his bed and starred at the ceiling. What am I going to do about Tyray? he wondered. Even if he dodged him tomorrow morning by taking the back way to school, he would run into Tyray eventually. He felt tapped.

The above passage is narrated from what point of view?

- a. first-person perspective b. second-person perspective c. third-person perspective

8. When I left the skating rink I felt sort of hungry, so I went into the drug store and had a Swiss cheese sandwich, and then I went in a phone booth. I thought I might maybe give old Jane another buzz. I had the whole evening free, I thought I'd ask her to go dancing. I saw her dancing once. She looked like a good dancer.

The above passage is narrated from what point of view?

- a. first-person perspective b. second-person perspective c. third-person perspective